The Vermont Fuel Education Center (operated by VFDA) is the state's leading provider of education and training to both fuel and non-fuel companies that sell, install and service oil and gas heating systems. The Vermont Fuel Education Center (or VFEC) trains more than 1000 certified heating technicians every year. Our propane and oilheat education curriculum is recognized nationally and is required for heating technicians in Vermont. The Vermont Fuel Education Center website www.vfec.org is visited by thousands of members and non-members to access the latest training opportunities and information about certification. We are providing VFDA members with a low cost opportunity to market your services and products to this audience. Become a VFEC website sponsor and your companies name, logo, contact info and website link will be on the VFEC website and on our weekly electronic education bulletins.

Web sponsorship is available to VFDA Members Only.

COST: $30 per month, $300 for entire year (a savings of $60)
